WATER FAMINE IN CITY

Situation in Cincinnati
Absolutely Appalling
Says Fire Chief

ALL SCHOOLS DISMISSED

And Factories Compelled to Close Down—Breaking of Water Main Places City at the Mercy of the Fire
Fiend.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Dec. 9.—Sixty thousand workmen were thrown out of employment here today on account of the lack of water, caused by the breaking of a huge main in the East End on last Saturday. This estimate was made by Police Chief Copelan and W. C. Culkins, secretary of the chamber of commerce after receiving reports all morning from the various factories that have been forced to close down.

With this information, came reassuring news that the repair of the main can possibly be completed by Wednesday morning and it is probable that the water situation will be in a normal condition by Wednesday noon.

It was stated, however, that the schools would not open until Thursday and that in case the water is in poor condition for drinking purposes at that time, school may be suspended for the remainder of the week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Dec. 9.—Owing to the shortage of water in the central portion of this city due to the bursting of a water main Saturday the fire situation today was described by Fire Chief Bunker as "absolutely appalling." The only available water is in the Eden Park reservoirs and this would not last an hour in case a big fire broke out, declared Chief Bunker.

A flying squadron of 19 automobile chemical engines has been mobilized and will be rushed to any fire today. All firemen have been put on emergency duty. No schools opened today and the scholars will be given a vacation until the central supply main is repaired. This, it is expected will be Wednesday or early Thursday.

A small amount of water was afforded the central portion of the city last night but this was turned (Continued on Page 12, Col. 3.)

WOULDN'T PAY TAXI DRIVER; COST HIM $20

Silas Sadwell, living in the vicinity of Black Hand, refused to pay Olive "Chicken" Lucas $5 agreed upon for being taken from Newark to a point near Hanover last Friday night. Having time to reflect now over the matter, he has probably decided that it would have been cheaper, for he was fined $20 and costs in police court Tuesday morning and ordered committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

Lucas charged Shadwell with representing that he had $5 with which to pay for the ride. After reaching Hanover, Shadwell left the machine and promised to return in a minute with the money. Instead, he disappeared and could not be found by the driver.

Lucas caused a "John Doe" warrant to be issued and Sadwell was brought in Monday night by Patrolman Corder.

One drunk was the only other case considered in police court Tuesday. The usual fine of $5 and costs was assessed.

Thousands of Letters and Petitions Ask Clemency For Woman Sentenced To Hang

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hartford, Conn., Dec. 9.—Faster than the clerks in the executive office at the state capitol can open them, come petitions to Governor Simeon E. Baldwin asking for clemency for Mrs. Bessie B. Wakefield, sentenced to be hanged for the murder of her husband. The correspondence goes into the waste basket as fast as opened but overflowing waste baskets sent to the boiler room barely keep pace with the incoming mailacks.

House Lobby Investigation Reports Made Public Today; Rep. McDermott Criticised

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 9.—Results of the house lobby investigation by a committee, headed by Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, were made public today in two reports—a majority report signed by Democrats and Republicans alike and a supplemental report filed by Representative McDonald of Michigan.

The majority made no recommendations, but declared that Representative McDermott of Illinois, had been guilty of acts of grave impropriety, unbecoming the dignity of his position, though "we cannot say that he has been corrupted in his votes."

The majority report also held that McDermott, having intimate relations with L. H. McMichael, former chief page of the house, knew that M. M. Mulhall, "lobbyist" for the next National Association of Manufacturers, employed McMichael. The majority held that both the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor engaged in political activities and expended money to effect nominations and elections of the members of the house of representatives.

Representative McDonald, who agreed with the majority finding, declared that congress had fallen somewhat from its high estate in the estimation of American people that there has been a broadcast suspicion of conditions existing in congress that a system has been built up for defeating or preventing remedial legislation. He made recommendations for legislative reforms.

The lobby of the Association of Manufacturers and of industrial defense is held guilty of improperly preventing and trying to prevent legislation.

Gravest doubt was expressed as to the propriety of acts of Mulhall and Counsel James A. Emery, for the Manufacturers. The report added: "It is outrageous and offensive that these associations should have their paid hired lobbyists about the capitol buttonholing members of congress to induce them to remain away when a vote was being taken."

Nothing illegitimate was found in the activity of the American Federation of Labor. Lobbies of liquor dealers and money lenders in Washington were found to have neither affected nor prevented legislation improperly. Methods used by the Manufacturers Association of sending Mulhall through the country with (Continued on page 11, col. 4.)

POISON NEEDLE GANG WORKING IN CLEVELAND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Dec. 9.—Police and government officers today are searching for two men believed to be members of the New York "poison needle" gang, who are alleged to have attacked George Baker of New York, said to be a United States immigration inspector, and robbed him of valuable government papers while he was under the influence of the drug.

Every effort was being made to keep the matter quiet and Baker himself could not be located today but officials would not deny that Baker had been attacked and robbed.

VIVISECTIONISTS BITTERLY ATTACKED BY ANTI CONGRESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 9.—Bitter attack on the vivisection work of the Rockefeller institute and also on John D. Rockefeller for financing the work was made by Edward H. Clement of Boston in his opening address here today as president of the International Anti-Vivisection Congress.

"Imagine it proved," he declared, "that your healthier scalp or sounder liver is indicated as the physicians say, for Mr. Rockefeller's baldness and dyspepsia. Are you willing that Mr. Rockefeller's jugglers should take you or one of your sons and setting up your survivors in affluence they never dreamed of, proceed to scalp you, painlessly of course, perhaps with prayers? Here in the United States is the largest mass in the world of 'tainted wealth' and the whole topping mass stands crowned with the Rockefeller Institute. There is enthroned man's superior cunning and power wreaking itself on animals as erstwhile on humanity."

Mr. Clement declared that the hardest battle was against the corrupting appeal of vivisection to the selfish fears of man.

"Doctors justify themselves," he added, "by saying that any poor baby of the slums is worth a thousand dogs."

"But certain children's hospital experimentation of record does not suggest excessive tenderness for infants of the slums," he asserted.

A new feature is the mailing in of photographs of children. One photograph had written across it: "The mother of these children is praying for the life of the mother of the Wakefield babies." Many letters come by registered mail. Everything goes into the waste basket. Up to date more than 25,000 letters and petitions have been received. The Wakefield case has not come to the attention of the governor or the board of pardons. Counsel for the woman will first ask the supreme court for a new trial.

VERDICT IS ORDERED FOR CRAIG

Court Sustains Motion of Defense to Stop Shelbyville Trial

EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT

Veterinarian Was Charged With Killing Dr. Helen Knabe in October, 1911—Was Found With Throat Gashed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 9.—Judge Alonzo Blair today instructed the jury to dismiss the case against Dr. Wm. B. Craig, charged with the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe, at Indianapolis, Oct. 23, 1911. The motion to dismiss the case was made by Attorney Henry Spaan for the defendant yesterday when the state concluded its evidence.

The sudden termination of the case was not unexpected by those who have watched the progress of the trial. It was believed that the state had failed to make as strong a case against Dr. Craig, who is dean of the Indiana Veterinary college at Indianapolis, as it had predicted.

Mr. Spaan in his argument in support of his motion to dismiss the case, said he believed Dr. Knabe was murdered, but declared "it is a far cry from the proposition that Dr. Knabe was murdered to the proposition that Dr. Craig did it."

He declared that the state had failed to connect Dr. Craig with the crime in any way and also had failed to establish any motive for the crime. Attorneys for the state denied that their evidence was insufficient to convict but were overruled by Judge Blair's decision this morning.

Dr. Helene Knabe was one of the most prominent women doctors in the state and at one time was connected with the state board of health. She was found dead in her apartment in Indianapolis on the morning of Oct. 24, 1911, by her office girl, Miss Katherine McPherson. The police, after long investigation, reported that Dr. Knabe had committed suicide. Coroner Durhan connected an independent investigation for more than a year and returned a verdict of murder by persons unknown. The grand juries that considered the case made no report.

A number of women of Indianapolis became interested and employed a private detective to gather evidence. It was on the detective's report that the third grand jury which had considered the case, returned in indictments Dec. 31, 1912, against Dr. Craig and A. M. Ragsdale, an undertaker and administrator of the Knabe estate. Ragsdale was indicted as an accessory after the fact, and now that Craig has been acquitted, probably will never be tried.

RAGSDALE INDICTMENT IS NOLLE PROSED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Indianapolis, Dec. 9.—The indictment against Alonso M. Ragsdale, indicted with Dr. Wm. B. Craig for the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe, was nolle prossed in court here today by Prosecutor Frank P. Baker, of this Marion county. Ragsdale was indicted as an accessory after the fact and as Dr. Craig was acquitted, there was no case against Ragsdale, it was stated. Ragsdale, who is an undertaker, was administrator of the Knabe estate.

The New American Red Cross Headquarters in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The headquarters of the Red Cross Society to be erected in Washington will be one of the handsomest buildings of the kind in the world. The architect's plans have been drawn. The building is to be a memorial to the heroic women of the north and the south who gave their energies and sometimes their lives toward nursing the soldiers of the civil war or made sacrifices in other ways for the north or the south. Congress has appropriated $500,000 for the work, and the remainder of the cost, $150,000, must be raised by subscription by the Red Cross. The frontage of the building will be about 150 feet and it will be three stories high. This illustration is on the scale of 20 feet to 3-8 of an inch.

Unsuccessful Attempt to Escape From Exile Made by "Grandmother of Revolution"

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Petersburg, Dec. 9.—Despatches from Irkutsk today, tell of a second unsuccessful attempt to escape from exile in Siberia, made early this month by Madame Catherine Breshkovskaya, "grandmother of the Russian revolution," whose case at the time of her condemnation in March, 1910, aroused widespread interest in Europe and the United States.

Mme. Breshkovskaya was sentenced to perpetual exile after a trial which was watched with intense excitement throughout the world. She was charged with revolution conspiracy in conjunction with Nicolas Tchaikovsky, the "father of the revolution," who had been active for reform since 1870. The man was acquitted on evidence brought from the United States. Because she would not plead for the Russian emperor's clemency, Mme. Breshkovskaya was incarcerated at Kirensk, a penal settlement 40 miles northeast of Irkutsk.

According to Novoe Vremya, Mme. Breshkovskaya, on December 1, went to dinner under police escort at the lodging of a fellow exile Vladimiroff, and remained there till evening. Then a companion Aufreif dressed in Mme. Breshkovskaya's clothes emerged from the house, supported by Vladimiroff. Accompanied by the police escort the accomplice hobbled to the lodgings of Mme. Breshkovskaya and crawled into her bed where he remained.

The disappearance of the famous Mme. Breshkovskaya was not discovered until Dec. 4. Hurried orders for her pursuit were issued. It was found, however, that all telegraph wires had been cut to hamper the authorities. Communication was later obtained with Irkutsk and detachments of troops and police scoured the country with the result that a body of constabulary intercepted a conveyance speeding on the way to Yatutsk and recognized among its occupants Mme. Breshkovskaya dressed as a man. She had in her possession a counterfeit passport and a considerable sum of money.

The fugitive was brought back to Kirensk where half a dozen of her accomplices were placed under arrest.

Mme. Breshkovskaya who was a woman of advanced age has been an unremitting fighter for the reform in Russia. As long ago as 1872 she was sent to her first period of exile in Siberia.

REFUGEES ARRIVE AT PRESIDIQ

Thousands of Mexican Soldiers and Civilians Camp on U.S. Border

STORY OF EVACUATION

Of Chihuahua Told by the Refugees—An Eight Day Journey Completed on Foot After Train Had Been Wrecked.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Presidio, Texas, Dec. 9.—As far as the eye could reach there stretched out today over the desert south of Ojinaga, Mexico, opposite Presidio, the straggling end of the Mexican Federal army and the civilians who fled from Chihuahua to safety on the United States border. It was expected the refugees would continue to arrive in Ojinaga all day. A few who reached the American side said the exodus included more than 4000 persons. The Federal troops, including the most important Federal generals in the north, continued fortifying the village. This, taken with the fact that General Salazar immediately on his arrival, communicated with Mexico City, indicated that the Federals intended to make a defense on the border, at least until they would receive orders from the Huerta government.

Food supplies of which the Federals were in great need, will be sent across the river but the United States soldiers have been instructed to guard closely against any infraction of the neutrality laws.

The civilians who endured the hardships of the eight day march, mostly on foot, rather than face the invasion of Chihuahua City by the rebels, are to be allowed to cross. They will be taken fifty miles by automobile and wagons to Marfa, thence to El Paso and other cities.

The story brought by the refugees was that they left Chihuahua on three trains, hoping to cover the distance to Fatimur, the end of the uncompleted railroad, about a third of the way across the desert, but that a short distance out of the city the first train was wrecked. All of them had to renew the journey on foot, the Federals first dynamiting the engines and burning up more than 100 cars to prevent their falling into the hands of the rebels.

FLOCK DWINDLES; COURT IS ASKED TO SELL CHURCH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Fremont, O., Dec. 9.—Because the congregation has diminished to almost nothing and there is a mortgage of $600 on the property which is fast going to ruin, application has been made in the courts here for the sale of the Presbyterian church at Green Spring. The petition asks that the funds be turned over to the Presbyterian Church Society.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO SAVE SCHMIDT FROM THE CHAIR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Dec. 9.—The aged father and mother and the sister of Hans Schmidt, confessed slayer of Anna Aumiller, are on their way from Germany to New York to save him from the electric chair, if possible. They will offer testimony that he has been insane for years. Announcement to this effect was made by Schmidt's attorney at the opening today of the second day of Schmidt's trial for murder. The lawyer said the two were expected here Thursday. Eight jurors had been selected when court convened.

Aiken Tax Cases Against Licking Men Will Now Be Dismissed From Court

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Dec. 9.—What amounts to a dismissal of the cases against 40 odd Licking county men who were charged with illegal traffic in intoxicants resulted in the supreme court today when that body affirmed the lower courts in holding these men liable for the Aiken tax. All of the defendants, some time ago, when the liquor license bill became a law paid the assessment and the Aiken tax law, so there would be no charge against them.

When the lower court held that these men were liable for the Aiken tax three of the cases were carried to the supreme court and two to the United States supreme court. Before the highest court passed on the cases the Aiken tax assessments were paid and the cases were dismissed.

Actors on Christmas

There's lots of work,
And there ain't no play,
So what's the use
Of a Christmas day?

AN ARROW NOTCH COLLAR
25 cents. Galt, Peabody & Co., Inc., New York.

THAT little verse, paraphrased from one familiar to sooths, just about sums up the real Christmas sentiment existing among people connected with the theatrical business. No, that doesn't mean that the actor, the manager and the advance agent do not appreciate the giving and receiving of presents from their friends. But it does mean that people connected with the stage have come to look upon the Christmas time as a season of short pay and hard work.

It isn't generally known, but it is true, the less true, that most actors have a clause in their contracts which calls for half pay the week before Christmas. This clause was inserted in the days when the week before Christmas really was a "tough" one in the theatrical business. But nowadays there are many productions which pack the theaters to the doors the week before Christmas as well as any other week in the year. Nevertheless, some of the managers live up to that contract and deduct the half week's pay. That is one reason why actors aren't particularly merry at Christmas.

There are other managers who make a practice of laying off their companies the week before Christmas and some of them ten days or two weeks before. In that case there is no salary at all forthcoming. That, probably, is another reason why the average actor cannot understand why Christmas is an occasion to be unduly joyful.

It was only last year that some of the managers came to the conclusion that stage people, like other human beings, might like to spend some part of the Christmas holiday with their friends and relatives. Up to that year it had been the custom of all managers to give a special matinee on Christmas day. That meant, of course, that about all the actor had to do on this festive occasion was to rush to the theater almost as soon as he had acquired his regular amount of sleep, give an afternoon performance and then, if fortunate enough to have friends or relatives living in the city, to hurry through his Christmas dinner with them or leave before it was half over to go back to the theater to play the evening performance.

But a few of the managers changed that last year by omitting the Christmas matinee and giving it on the day following. There were other managers, however, who not only gave the Christmas matinee but acted on the suggestion of their more charitable competitors and gave the matinee the day after too. However, this omission of the Christmas matinee was confined almost exclusively to a few of the first class theaters in New York city.

On the road it is different. The actors have to work just as hard as they ever did, and opposition from local managers will probably prevent the elimination of the Christmas matinee outside of New York.

With some companies Christmas is not the disagreeable occasion that it is with others. One or two owners make it a practice to instruct the manager with the company to have a Christmas dinner prepared at the expense of the show. Sometimes a caterer is called in, and the dinner is served on the stage between the matinee and the evening performance. In that event the dinner usually proves profitable of material for the house press agent, and the affair is duly recorded in the daily papers. Sometimes it is served on the stage after the evening performance. Other times arrangements are made at some hotel.

It was one of these after the performance affairs that came pretty near putting a traveling stock company out of business in a town out in Iowa last Christmas. This theater, by the way, boasts of the only dog critic in existence. This comes from the fact that if the dog doesn't like a show he will start to howl, and he has to be removed from the theater before the performance can be continued.

Only a month before a well known concert singer was appearing at the theater. She had about finished one of her best selections when the dog bit his nose over the railing of an upper box and began to howl his disapproval. That led to the temporary banishment of the dog critic from the theater. But when the stock company came along the manager heard about the dog, and, willing to take a chance that the dog's judgment of his show would be favorable, he suggested that the dog be allowed to sit by a big well, which was a part of the scenic effect in one of the acts, just for the sake of realism.

Now, this same manager had concluded to give his company a dinner on the stage after the performance. In the course of the play the dog was brought out and tied to the well. Everything went all right until the dog sniffed the turkey and the other good things at the side of the stage, and without waiting for the finish of the act he made for the food, dragging the heavy rock walled well" behind him.

This action on the part of the dog title-actor disturbed things generally, for the villain had just been arranging with one of his confederates to rid himself of the hero of the play by tossing him down the abysmal well. The villain, after the laughter subsided, arranged his part of the plot by canceling the order to have the hero tossed down the well and instead to have him tied to a railroad track. However, the audience refused to take the play seriously after the well disappeared.

There is probably more real Christmas sentiment in plays that have to carry children as a part of the production than in any of the others. With these shows there is usually a Christmas tree between the matinee and the evening performance in which every one joins in and makes merry.

A hard lot is that of the actor who happens to be playing what is known as "the silent type" around the holidays. Use of the telephone is all that he has to do, and he must be day an extra one is usually added. A vaudeville actor on "big time" probably has more time to appreciate Christmas—if Christmas really can be appreciated away from home—than any other because he is usually in the theater but an hour in the afternoon and an hour in the evening, and the rest of the time is his own unless the house manager has promised to "ask" him to go over to some club and entertain the guests at their Christmas reception. Of course the actor doesn't have to do this, but if the manager is of any standing at all in the vaudeville world the actor usually finds it expedient to grant the request.

But the man probably who spends the lonesomest of them all is the poor advance agent—recognized on the program as business manager, advance representative or manager in advance. Unless the advance agent is close enough to his home town to "jump" for Christmas he usually gets a genuine attack of the sinner pure blues. True, the advance man who has been on the road for any length of time can usually be depended upon to meet people he knows, but they are people who live in the town, and he usually finds himself dining alone when the time comes for him to eat his "Christmas dinner."

SNAPPING THE CRANBERRY.

Dinner Game Suggested, but Not Recommended.

This is a game to be played at the Christmas table. When the cranberry sauce is brought on each guest must place a cranberry on the end of a knife, holding the knife in the left hand with the right hand close behind the cranberry. At the word "snap," given by the hostess, the cranberry should be snapped with the first finger of the right hand at the target. The game shall be continued until each player has shot away all of his cranberries. The score is counted thus:

Hitting the hostess with a cranberry counts one.

Hitting grandpa counts two; grandma, three; Uncle Will, four; Uncle Tom, five, and so on, depending on whom the guests and those around the table are.

A cranberry that goes on the floor is out of play, but one that falls in any person's lap or sticks in the hair or on a coat or dress can be picked up and played again. Anybody that hits anybody else squarely on the nose counts fifty to the lucky player's score. This is a highly diverting game and one that all will enjoy, especially the hostess.—New York World.

BUSINESS men want quick action and their increasing use of the telephone springs from that desire. To meet different requirements of its patrons the Telephone Company, like the railroad company, has established different classes of service. The party line, like the local train, is invaluable in its place; where trifling delays work no impairment to the service, it furnishes quick action. For the man in a hurry, who wants speed, privacy and a clear track everywhere always, the single line telephone, like the fast express, goes through direct, supplying quick and quiet service.

INSTALLATION OF NEWARK CHAPTER NO. 305, O. E. S.

Friday evening was the occasion of another delightful event in the history of Newark Chapter, No. 305, O. E. S. This was the evening set aside for the installation of its new officers and nearly 100 members and visitors were present. Beside F. Boice of Mt. Sterling, Worthy Grand Matron of Ohio, installed the officers, assisted by Mrs. J. B. McGaughy of Columbus. The work was done in a most excellent manner. With her charming personality and earnestness in her work, Mrs. Boice made a deep impression on all and before the evening was over had won the hearts of all who had the pleasure of hearing her. Mrs. McGaughy, acting as grand marshal, also impressed every one with the knowledge and thoroughness of her work.

At the close of the work the Worthy Grand Matron performed a pleasant duty when in a charming manner she presented Mrs. Bonshire, the outgoing Matron, with a past officer's jewel.

Mrs. Bonshire thanked the chapter in a few earnest words and was about to retire when she was again called upon to receive from the hands of the Worthy Grand Matron, in behalf of the chapter, a beautiful chafing dish in appreciation of her efforts and faithfulness in the past two years as Worthy Matron. Mrs. Bonshire was completely taken by surprise and too much overcome to say more than thank you. At the close of the meeting ice cream, cake and coffee were served, thus ending a very delightful meeting.

The following officers were installed:

W. M.—Mary Howard.
W. P.—Frank Montgomery.
A. M.—Mary Bounds.
Sec.—Mary Gabbee.
Treas.—Emma English.
Con.—Edith Armstrong.

DUKE SETTLES SUIT AGAINST FRANK MUNSEY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Dec. 9.—A libel suit brought by the Grand Duke Boris of Russia against the Frank A. Munsey company was settled today out of court, but the grand duke will appear on the witness stand on December 18 and give evidence to clear his character. The case arose out of an article describing the grand duke's career in Manchuria during the Russo-Japanese war and his relations with General Kurokamkin, the Russian commander-in-chief.

Frederick E. Smith, a prominent Union politician, acting as counsel for the grand duke, asked the judge to set a day for the grand duke to appear and testify. He said the case would have involved the calling of an immense amount of witnesses. In order to avoid this, the parties had discussed the matter out of court and had reached a settlement. Henry E. Duke, counsel for the defendant company, will make a statement and the grand duke will go on the stand on the date set, when the terms of settlement also will be announced.

CHEER UP; HENS HAVE DECIDED TO BEGIN OPERATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Dec. 9.—Egg relief from the prohibitive egg price is in sight, the experts of the department of agriculture announce in a special report on the subject, because the pullets all over the country have begun to lay. Information reaching the department is to the effect that already poultry owners are reporting a 50 per cent egg production.

The experts declare this change of heart on the part of the auto-crats of the barn is not due to threatened egg boycott, but to natural conditions. Explanation of the shortage of last fall, they say, dates back to weather conditions of last spring and summer.

CHINESE EGGS SHIPPED HERE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

San Francisco, Dec. 9.—A consignment of three thousand dozen eggs arrived here yesterday from China. The shipment was made from Shanghai soon after news reached the Orient that eggs were selling at 75 cents a dozen in Pacific coast cities. It is said that other shipments will be made whenever there is an egg famine on the coast.

Johnetta, Pa., Dec. 9.—In searching among old books and newspapers which had come into his possession, L. E. Allen of this place yesterday found a copy of the first edition of the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser, dated August 26, 1773. The paper, yellow with age, contains an advertisement inserted by George Washington. The advertisement states that George Washington has obtained patents of 20,000 acres of land along the Ohio and Kanawha rivers and he offers to lease the land as "reasonable rates." Thomas Broome, a broker, advertises that he wishes to purchase a "negro girl about 12 years old."

PRESIDENT HAS NOT DECIDED ON VACATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 9.—Just where President Wilson will spend his Christmas vacation should be permitted himself one, will be left to the "main house" as he expresses it. The president is understood to mean that Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Wilson will make the selection, thus giving the final evidence of a well trained husband and father.

That a vacation will be taken has not yet been decided. It is understood that Mr. Wilson is not averse to congress recessing over the holidays, especially in view of the fact that the senate gives promise of getting the currency measure ready for the conference committee before then.

COVERED TOP OF CHIMNEY CAUSED ALARM OF FIRE

Roofers who, several years ago, removed the top of a chimney from the building occupied by the Weant bakery and others, were responsible for the fire late Tuesday morning at 8:40 o'clock, which caused Box 57 to be sounded, calling all the city's fire apparatus to the center of the city. A fire was started in a brazier to destroy some rubbish. Having no outlet, the smoke spread under the roof and caused alarm among occupants of the building. There was no damage except that a small portion of the roof was torn away by the firemen in an effort to locate the source of the smoke.

HOW TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR HAIR

Nothing spoils your good looks so much as homely hair—stringy, dull-colored, harsh. Nothing adds to good looks so much as beautiful hair—soft, silky, wavy and glossy. No matter how beautiful your hair is now, you can improve its good looks by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. If your hair is homely and ugly now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will make it softer, silkier, glossier, more beautiful in every way. It also makes it easier to put up and keeps it to "stay put." Its rich rose odor hides the unpleasant, oily smell of the hair. Harmony Hair Beautifier is rightly named; it beautifies the hair.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Revall Store—one of the more than 700 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to excrete it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste eat four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacist here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

Place County
Agricultural Agents
on Firm Basis

One of the most important of the many reforms which have been instituted by the State Agricultural Commission is that to place the appointing power of county agents on a more secure basis.

Heretofore it has been the practice for the state to provide 50 per cent of the fund necessary to maintain a county agent, while the remainder was raised by popular subscription. Many times the people failed to raise the amount allotted to them and there was much confusion.

The commission hereafter will only appoint agricultural agents in counties where experiment farms have been erected. The state will maintain the county agent and the county

A great many of the working farmers of the state have an antipathy to experts on agricultural matters and to scientific farming. These have not warmed up to the county agricultural agents. With the station in operation, the agent can conduct his experiments and give the results to the agriculturists, who can thereby be convinced by actual demonstrations. Tests are to be made with seeds, and after the brand best adapted to the soil has been found, the agent will sell it at a nominal price to the farmers in such county. In a short time all the agriculturists in that county will be using that particular brand of seeds. Experiments in crop rotation, treatment of the soil, and the feeding of live stock also will be conducted and the results given to the farmers.

Better crops will follow, and prosperity and happiness will come to the farmers in those counties, which take advantage of the new ruling.

The modern child still finds joy in Noah's ark. But the Greek kid of 2000 years ago, played with Trojan horses that opened up and revealed lurking soldiers. One of the ideas of educators is to give children plastic clay to model, to develop their sense of form. This seems quite twentieth century, until you read that the Kaffir children of South Africa have been doing the same thing for generations.

After all it is the stock and standard toys of the ages that please the heart of Toddykins. The mechanical railroad train may be snarled the day after Christmas. But the tin soldiers made in Nuremberg, of which over 100,000 pounds are shipped to this country yearly, are pulled out every rainy day.

Substantial little toys of this kind produce an immense amount of juvenile happiness and are worth every dollar they cost. Three-quarters of the mechanical toys are fakes. They are built to shine on the tree, and cost quite a substantial sum, but their frail mechanism goes to smash before the paint has begun to rub off.

SIX-DAY RIDERS ARE AFTER NEW RECORD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Dec. 9.—Fourteen teams were tied with 681 miles, three laps at 8 o'clock this morning, the thirty-second hour of the six-day bicycle race. The Corry-Walker team was one lap behind the leaders, while Kopsky and Keefe had covered only 681 miles flat. The previous record for the hour was 675 miles, 1 lap.

Shortly before 8 o'clock Jimmy Moran was declared out of the race. It was found that his shoulder blade was broken as a result of two bad falls.

Manners, Decency and Propriety Are No Longer the Rule, but the Exception

By WILLIAM C. E. NEWBOLT, Canon and Chancellor of St. Paul's Cathedral, London

THERE IS A GENERAL LAXITY OF MANNERS, OF DECENCY AND OF PROPRIETY OVER THE WORLD.

Books are sometimes gravely reprehensible. The modesty of town life has been BREAKING DOWN FOR MANY YEARS. It is not necessary that there should be a great religious upheaval. If people will only return to the ordinary OLD FASHIONED LAWS of conduct and demeanor things will come right again.

We sigh for another Isaiah to denounce the INDECENCIES AND EXTRAVAGANCES OF DRESS. Warning voices are heard about the MODERN DANCE and the lack of refinement, good manners and Christian courtesy.

Vice is common, virtue rare. To follow vice a man has only to let himself go. A man may be a libertine in his private life, but the world asks no questions. He is smart; he is wealthy; he is amusing. If he has powerful friends his misdeeds are concealed.

A MAN RUSHES HERE AND THERE IN A MAD GLUT OF WHAT HE THINKS IS PLEASURE—THEATERS, MUSIC HALLS, RACES AND WORSE. HE IS DRIFTING ON TO THE MIDNIGHT LEAP, THE PISTOL OR THE FATAL DRAFT.

An age which is shocked at the marriage service welcomes for its sons and daughters the sex problem dressed up in all the nauseous unreserve of a society novel.

Miss Dorothy received a number of pretty gifts.

BAD WEATHER HALTS WORK ON NEW TEMPLE

Seized with illness, while on an engine in the local yards, Clyde Lipshizer, a brakeman, boarding at 19 Trent street, fell into a pile of coal on the tender and then rolled to the ground. He sustained a severe cut on his chin and his head was badly bruised. He was rendered unconscious. The Bazier & Bradley ambulance was called, but the man had revived before its arrival and he declined to ride. He went to his home where a physician dressed the injuries which are not regarded as serious.

Unfavorable weather is the reason offered by the contractor for the delay in the construction of the new Masonic temple at Fourth and Church streets. A meeting of the trustees of the temple was held Monday night, and considerable business in relation to the work was transacted. An effort is being made to get the contractor to push the work. The delay in the brick and stone work has set the steel construction back as this part of the work has progressed as far as possible until more wall is put up. All the steel is on the ground and ready to be put in place as soon as the other work progresses far enough to allow it.

Story of a Lost Diamond.
A lady residing in a suburb of Boston sent her diamond ring to a well known shop there to be cleaned. A day or two later she took a journey of several hours. When she reached her destination she removed her glove, and lo, the diamond had come out of her ring. A diligent search failed to reveal the lost stone. She waited until her return to her home, and when the diamond could not be found there she went to the jeweler and told her story.

"I am afraid that you loosened the stone when you cleaned it," she concluded. She had little idea that he would agree with her, but to her surprise, after carefully examining the setting, he admitted: "I am afraid we did. I beg that you will select from my unset stones a diamond of about the size and quality of your old one, and I will give you back your ring looking as near as possible as it did when it was new." And he never charged her a cent! Of course he knew who the lady was and that he could trust her to tell a true story.—Kate Upton Clark in Leslie's.

Brazilian Rat Catchers.

Rats are a great nuisance in certain parts of Brazil, where the climate is very warm. The common cat does not thrive for some unaccountable reason, but is replaced by a domestic rat catcher, whose presence causes a decidedly unpleasant sensation to visitors when first they come in contact with the creature. It is a species of small boa constrictor—the gibola. The snakes are not venomous. They sleep in the house, generally taking up their position at the foot of the stairs. When nightfall approaches they begin to awaken, and during the night they glide swiftly about the premises looking for rats. Gibolas are offered for sale in the markets of Bahia and Pernambuco at prices ranging from $1 to $5, according to the size of the creature. It is claimed that they are so easily domesticated that, if removed from one house to another, they invariably return to the house whence they have been taken.

Didn't Drop Into Poetry.

There is an interesting story of Wordsworth, who went to call on Miss Harriet Martineau at Ambleside, in the house which she had built and laid out, writes A. C. Benson in the Century Magazine. There was a gathering of neighbors present, and Wordsworth stood for a long time at the window contemplating the beautiful landscape outside. Then he turned to the party and said:

"Miss Martineau, I congratulate you on your beautiful little domain. The views are wonderful, and it will turn out to be the wisest thing you ever did in your life."

He paused for a moment, and the guests expected some comment on the uplifting effects of communion with nature, but Wordsworth, with a fine gesture, continued:

"Your property will certainly be trebled in value within the next ten years!"

Mail by Rocket.
The island of Good Hope was the first of the Friendly Islands to be discovered by the Pandors in 1791. But this lord of many islets is very difficult of approach, for the seas are dangerous except to very small craft. The postmaster general has therefore invented a method of his own for the delivery of mails. He delivers them by rocket. When the hour of delivery arrives the whole population assembles on the shore to watch the great event, for it has happened that in midcareer the previous mail has burst and given its news to the waves. When the seven foot long rocket lands successfully there is a wild stampede of the natives thirsting for the latest news from Samoa or the Fiji Islands.—London Opinion.

The High C.
The famous composer and the noted tenor were standing by the rail of the ship looking out upon the tumbling waters.

"Yes," the composer was saying, "you took that high C perfectly."
"If I don't feel better in the morning," replied the tenor weakly, "the high sea is going to take me."

And he staggered toward his cabin.—New York Sun.

Condolences.
Mrs. Hen was in tears. One of her little ones had been sacrificed to make a repast for a visiting clergyman.

"Cheer up, madam," said the rooster comfortingly. "You should rejoice that your son is entering the ministry. He was poorly qualified for a lay member anyhow."—Philadelphia Ledger.

BAD COLD? YOUR HEAD STUFFED?

"Pape's Cold Compound" Gives Relief From Colds and Grippe in Few Hours—No Quinine.

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all grippe misery goes and your cold will be broken; it promptly opens your clogged-up nostril and the air jassages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

European Nostalgia For West Africa.

There is a wonderful charm about West Africa, says Major Tremenear in "Some Austral-African Notes and Anecdotes," which few Europeans can throw off. Then he tells of a man who, after living for ten consecutive years in a lonely part of southern Nigeria, made up his mind to have a trip home and sailed away in splendid spirit.

The Gold Coast ports were part of West Africa, and so he managed to make himself fairly at home while there, though the life on board ship was already beginning to bore him, and he wished that he had never left Nigeria. Sierra Leone he did not like at all, as it was not the West Africa which appealed to him, and he began to long for his home in the bush. After leaving that port and with no sight of land to cheer him he became desperate, and on arrival at Las Palmas he declared: "I shall go no farther. I must return at once. I have had quite enough of Europe."

Open Windows at Night.

It is difficult to get doctors to agree and to agree with the patient listener. For years I had been a slave to the open window, the fresh air at night.

That doctrine of the open bedroom window was my obsession, but recently doubt crept in. By accident the bedroom window had been closed, and I slept peacefully and woke refreshed in a closed room. There was no ventilation of the official medical variety. To a medical journalist I put the problem of the window at night, and, to my astonishment, he told me that I am an animal when I sleep and do not want fresh air at all.

"Look at the animals! When they sleep they choose the sunniest nooks they can find and they know what is best for them. Shut your bedroom windows at night and open them in the morning." And when I reflected on the dormouse and the dog I am encouraged to tuck my nose with the other animals.—London Chronicle.

An Old Caddie's Return.

He is an old caddie on an east coast course, and being a noted figure on the links he endeavors as far as possible to coddle only for thoroughly efficient golfers. Occasionally, however, he finds himself accompanying a "foozier," and on these occasions his dignity is injured.

One day recently he found himself caddying to an old gentleman who was out, clearly, more for exercise than for the love of the game and who was playing shocking golf.

By the time the twelfth hole was reached he had been in most of the bunkers en route and had succeeded in breaking a club. "I think I shall give up this hole," he remarked at last to his indignant caddie. "Na, na," reported the old worthy bitterly; "feenish the course, sir—feenish the course. You've gotten other four clubs to smash yet an' nukers the dae it in!"

Glasgow News.

A Merciful Farmer.

A young lady from the city was going one summer to make her first visit to a cousin in the country. At the station she was met by the cousin, and after a half hour's drive he told her that they were approaching his farm.

In one of the broad fields that met the young lady's attentive eye stood a windmill, and gathered around it, some standing and some reclining, were several hogs.

"Well, that beats anything I ever heard of," exclaimed the fair one. "I didn't know that you farmers were so considerate."

"What does?" queried the country cousin. "That over yonder," replied the city girl, pointing a pretty finger. "Just think of having a fan out in the field to keep those hogs cool!"—Christian Endeavor World.

Courage of Despair.

Professor McCoy of Melbourne university in a book about snake experiments tells a strange story illustrating the courage of despair. Putting a mouse into a box that contained one of his captive cobras, he watched the reptile glide slowly toward it. The mouse shrank terrified into a corner, and then when the cobra's fatened head was within an inch of it, it sprang into the air and alighted on the back of the neck of its foe. It sat there and clinched its sharp little teeth in the reptile's flesh. The cobra could not shake it off, and it bit deeper and deeper until the cobra lay dead.

An Irish Bull.

An Irishman was trying to lead a bull. He tied the rope to his wrist, and the bull took the lead. He took it with a vengeance. As the Irishman was flying around the corner a friend shouted, "Where are you going, Pat?" "I don't know," he replied. "Ask the bull."—Exchange.

Spoiling Good Paper.

"Poetry should be written on one side of the paper, shouldn't it?" asked the bedding bird.

"That depends on the poetry," replied the editor wearily. "Lots of it shouldn't be written on either side."—Philadelphia Record.

PRIMARY PLAN MEETS APPROVAL

Wilson's Theory, Announced in Message, Most Popular

ATTITUDE TOWARD MEXICO.

Only Criticism Against President Is "Watchful Waiting Policy"—How the Office of Minister to Paraguay Was Created—Hetch-Hatchy Bill Supported by Influential Senators.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 9.—[Special.]—The flurry—almost a panic—following the message of a president a week ago has almost subsided, but the fact remains that the president is still the supreme and actual ruler of the situation. Senators and representatives literally tumbled over themselves in order to get in line for his presidential primary, and the majority for it is so large that the only thing now troubling those who favor it is a plan by which it may be made workable. Like many other theories, it sounds all right, but seems to strike a snag when any attempt is made to put it into practice.

"In Time of Peace," Etc.

By passing the volunteer army bill the house of representatives has followed Washington's advice, "In time of peace prepare for war." While it was said that war was not imminent and the bill could not be put in operation unless there was war or threatened war, the mere fact that a bill which has been hanging up in committee for six months should be passed at this time by the party in power gave rise to the belief that the Mexican situation was growing more acute and the time was not so far distant when it would be necessary to send an army across the Rio Grande.

The One Criticism.

There is only one criticism of any moment heard against the Wilson administration, and that relates to the policy regarding Mexico. It is true that critics do not agree in their comments, some holding a mistake was made in not recognizing Huerta or any de facto government in power and others that long ago a firm policy should have been adopted. Then there are others who believe that the manifest destiny of this government is to civilize Mexico and make it a stable country and to that end the army should have been employed to protect American lives and American property long ago. These do not believe in the president's policy of "watchful waiting."

Man Ready for the Job.

During the discussion of a bill to create the office of minister to Paraguay, a little republic in South America, there was a great deal of "joshing" of one kind or another, which caused Hal Flood, the chairman of the foreign affairs committee, some unpleasant moments. The reports of the senate and house committees were only six lines long, of which Minority Leader Mann was caustically critical. "How," asked Payne of New York, "could either of these committees state that there was a gentleman waiting for this job? It would not look well in print."

Flood denied all knowledge of any one waiting for the place.

A distinguished gentleman has been waiting so long and has become so impatient that even I have learned who he is," declared Mann.

The principal objection to the new ministerial place was that there was no reason for a minister to Paraguay.

More Holidays Wanted.

Congressman Ferris wants congress to provide another holiday on June 17, to be known as "National Roads Day." If the Oklahoma member would provide for one day about that time, when every person instead of taking a holiday should contribute a day's work or its equivalent to good roads, he might be sure of better success.

Perkins' Personality.

The strongest prop the Hetch-Hatchy bill had in the senate was the personality of Senator Perkins. In poor health, unable to speak for the measure, the senior California senator was there day after day and in response to inquiries said the bill was all right. Men who had known him for the last score of years voted with him because they believed in him. Then, too, the support of men like Nelson of Minnesota and Norris of Nebraska gave the bill a big boost.

Alabama to the Fore.

Alabama leads all states in alphabetical order, and the "Here We Rest" state seems to have a lead in the house. Underwood is the leader and author of the tariff bill. Clayton is wrestling with the trust problem. Burnett will put through his immigration restriction bill. Hobson is fighting for a big navy. Heflin fights woman suffrage and wants Jimcrow cars in the capital, while Abercrombie is the leading educational legislator in congress.

Just Like the Senate.

The senate spent several days discussing a resolution as to whether its sessions should begin at 10 in the morning, run to 6 in the evening, a recess until 8 and a session lasting to 11. And all the time the discussion was going on the senate was doing that very thing by unanimous consent. Can you beat it?

The crap shooter's idea of Paradise is a pair o' dice.

HAD BEATEN A BOARD BILL IN THIS CITY

Robert G. Brown, arrested at Mt. Vernon yesterday pending an investigation by federal officers, was taken into custody there a month ago on a charge of beating a board bill in Newark. At that time he settled the account and the case was not prosecuted. Now Brown is charged with embezzeling money order funds, it being alleged that he accepted an application for a money order from a patron of a rural route on which he was substitute carrier, and that he failed to purchase the order on his return to the office. It is said that he was unable to explain satisfactorily what he did with the money. The postal officials refuse to talk on the matter.

GAS PRESSURE MUCH STRONGER THIS MORNING

We are seeing on the raw, cold and windy morning Monday, and there is a very slight rise in the gas pressure in Newark. At 4 o'clock this morning, the gas pressure was at ten feet above the average in the northern part of the winter season, so far as can be seen, from two to twenty feet in view of the fact that there is a great deal of pressure less than two feet. Tuesday's showing was the only indication gas off has been taken off. The gas shortage was at 10 feet on Tuesday. In fact, there is not such a short gas and the supply naturally and amply greater pressure early in the morning. From 10 to 12 are the hours of the day when the supply is at its lowest. Then there is a let-up in the pressure, when for two hours there is another heavy pull. The fact is that with thermometers registering no lower than twenty degrees below zero the pressure was so low, it is said, to be a safe indication that the gas is low generally.

Office buildings were in better condition Tuesday, and pupils returned to their studies in the public schools.

First Things

The first settlement in Sierra Leone, the prosperous British colony on the west coast of Africa, was made 111 years ago today, Dec. 9, 1786. At that period London swarmed with negroes living in poverty and on the verge of starvation, and Dr. Smallman's scheme for sending them to Africa to found a colony was accepted as the best solution of the difficulty. The first ship-load of colonists consisted of 400 negroes and 80 whites, the latter principally women of bad character. Although land for the colony had been purchased from the native king, the Africans were not friendly, and a hostile attack, together with the shiftlessness of the colonists, almost brought the venture to ruin. In 1791 the survivors were removed to a new settlement, and in 1792 the population of the colony was increased by the introduction of 1,000 negroes from Nova Scotia and the Bahamas. In 1794 the settlement was again transferred to Freetown, now the capital of the colony and the greatest seaport on the west coast of Africa. In the early days of the government of the idle blacks and the dissolute whites was no sinecure, and Sydney Smith remarked, not without truth, that Sierra Leone always had two governors—one just arriving and the other just leaving. The soil of Sierra Leone is exceedingly fertile, but few white men are able to live there.

EX-AVIATOR AND WIFE RECONCILED; GIVES UP FLYING

Mrs. J. C. Mars and her husband, Bert Mars, who was known all over the country a few years ago for his feats with his aeroplane and who died in the oil fields near Newark for some time, were the happiest couple in Columbus today. They began all over again after having separated for over a year and a half. Mars has been employed by the Columbia Gas and Fuel company in the oil fields near Newark, and while there a correspondence was started between Mrs. Mars and him, which resulted in their reconciliation. Mars was one of the first to take aviation in this country. He kept it for four years and then quit, saying there wasn't enough money in it, and then

Mr. and Mrs. Mars will probably remain in Columbus.

I wish every suffering person could use this electric battery and find out, as I did, how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will help you, too. JUDGE SPEAR DIES MONDAY AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—After an illness of three weeks duration Judge William T. Spear, former judge of the Supreme Court, died yesterday in the eighty-first year of his age. Death was due to a general breaking down of the system, in spite of old age. He lost strength day by day until the end came at 12 yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Spear, wife of two of his sons were at the bedside at the family residence, 82 Sherman avenue.

Judge Spear retired from the bench last February, after a long and memorable service for the state. He served as judge of the Supreme Court for 28 years, the longest consecutive occupancy of any judge of the highest court.

He was born at Warren, O., June 3, 1833, and was judge of the Trumbull County Common Pleas court for six years. In 1885 he was elected to fill out the unexpired term on the Supreme bench of John W. Okey, and was continuously re-elected until the fall of 1912, when, in a large field of candidates, he was defeated by Judge Willard.

GLENFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Blanchard entertained at Sunday evening Mr. George Foster and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrie Swaine.

Mr. H. H. Kagay, a prominent oculist, attended the annual association at Columbus on Saturday evening.

The G. H. S. basketball team easily won the game against the North Straterville High Frat, Saturday night, a score of 60 to 6.

Mr. Peter Smith, a highly respected citizen of Glenford, was struck down by the northbound B. & O. passenger train and received injuries which proved fatal. Mr. Smith was a committee man of Penn county, a veteran of the civil war.

A pretty home was the scene of Mrs. Frank Clark's death, when their daughter, Miss Clara, was united in marriage with Mr. Grover Hoover, the immediate relatives of the young couple were present. They will reside with the groom's mother.

Miss Mabel Swain was visited over Thanksgiving at the home of her brother, Superintendent Salathart and family at Pekin, Ill.

Teach Your Child How To Be Healthy

Regular Hand Movement From Infancy Insures Good Health in Later Years.

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance or carelessness in the feeding of a baby its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the two chief organs on which the infant's comfort and health depend are causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—but it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative-tonic. In the opinion of a great many people, among them such well-known persons as the parents of Bertha Lee Woodard, 3 years old, of Moultrie, Ga., the proper remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin. Mrs. I. N. Woodard says that little Bertha was troubled with constipation for over a year, and that after trying several different kinds of remedies she found her relief in Syrup Pepin. It is a mild, pleasant-tasting laxative, which every person likes, does not grip nor cramp, and contains that most excellent of all digestants, pepsin.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills, etc., are distressing. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels nothing is more suitable than this mild laxative-tonic, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin.

Three generations of people are using it today, and thousands of families keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

PLACES "FIRED" PATROLMAN OVER THE POLICE CHIEF

Lima, Dec. 9.—Edwin Blank, who resigned three months ago as safety director after discharging Charles Armstrong from the force, yesterday assumed his duties as chief of police, having been appointed by outgoing Mayor Corbin N. Shook.

Major-elect Robb appointed Armstrong safety director, a position above that of the new chief. The appointment came as the result of Mayor Shook's refusal to recognize his successful opponent when Chief Andrew Ernest resigned last week to accept a position with the Ohio liquor license commission.

PREPARING FOR PUBLIC XMAS TREE

Preparations for Newark's public Christmas tree are progressing. The tree will be in place probably the latter part of next week and it will then be trimmed and wired placed for 300 electric lights, according to plans of the committee, announced following a meeting Monday night.

While it will not be possible in this section of the country to secure a tree equal in size to the mammoth 65-foot New York tree, the committee hopes to obtain a tree of good size. It will be lighted about 6 p.m. Christmas eve and probably will be lighted each night until New Year's. The Christmas eve concert planned by the committee will be in charge of Prof. C. W. Klopp, instructor in music in the public schools, and it is hoped there will be music on other nights as well. It is said any societies or choirs who desire to participate will find plenty of opportunity.

The Winter Picnic meeting has been postponed to the first Wednesday in January out of respect to the recent death of Mrs. Jones, who was a member.

John Ogilvie of Rome, Georgia, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clemons on Granger street. The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar in the parlors of the church this evening.

MISSING MAN IN CREEK.

East Liverpool, Dec. 9.—After a search since last Tuesday, the body of Patrick Cannon, aged 40, East Liverpool, was found last night in Beaver creek, near Lisbon. He is thought to have fallen accidentally into the stream.

There is a good deal of talk about walking up to the cannon's mouth, but the real test of courage is that of withholding a dime from the pirate who runs the hotel hatstand.

HIGH COST OF LIVING REDUCED FOR THE NATIVES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Dec. 9.—High living cost practically has ceased to give the Alaskan natives any serious concern since the government, through the federal bureau of education, has aided in establishing cooperative supply stores at several points. These stores carry all the goods that the natives desire and sell at price that traders cannot meet.

Heretofore, the bureau says, traders have charged exorbitant prices for goods they sold the natives and purchased native products at ridiculously low figures. To meet this situation and protect the natives the bureau of education undertook the establishment of cooperative stores managed by the natives under the supervision of the public school teachers.

These stores have been very successful. One instance is cited where a store at Hydaburg, in southeastern Alaska, after a year's operation was able to declare a 50 per cent cash dividend to its native owners.

There was left sufficient funds to erect a larger store building.

Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home

Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly.

You will find one of the best cough syrups you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is not laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, asthma and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinolone and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN IN WASHINGTON TO URGE LEGISLATION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 9.—Inspired by the example of woman organizations that have recently stormed the capital and white house, national leaders of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union tomorrow will march up capitol hill to urge the adoption of the prohibition amendment to the constitution. Plans for the new invasion of the national legislative halls have been completed and a large delegation with prominent speakers will present the arguments.

Announcement has been made that Mrs. Emma Sanford Shelton of Washington, Mrs. Ella Boole, Brooklyn, president of the New York City organization and Mrs. Mary Harris Armor of Georgia, would be the speakers to urge the adoption of the Hobson amendment providing for nation-wide prohibition. It is said Senator Shepard of Texas and Representative Hobson of Alabama, would receive the delegation in the capitol rotunda.

Hundreds of well known W. C. T. U. workers from nearly every state in the union will attend the demonstration.

WOULD PREVENT THE SPEEDING OF RECKLESS DRIVERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Dec. 9.—Coincident with the holding of an international exposition of safety here this week, New York is aroused by the frequency of the so-called automobile killings. So many children have been victims that a number of women representing various organizations have appointed a committee to call upon Mayor Araldo Kline and to petition for the appointment of a bureau for the prevention of further speeding and reckless driving.

There have been 241 deaths in this city from automobile accidents in the last 11 months in connection with which there have been only 32 arrests, with no indictments and no licenses revoked, according to a speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Society for Political Study.

COMPLIMENTS THE NEWARK SCHOOLS

In the December issue of the Ohio Educational Monthly, published in Columbus by F. B. Pearson and O. T. Corson, Newark public schools come in for a share of complimentary mention. Accompanying a cut of the new Hartman school recently dedicated, is an article telling of the merits of the three new buildings here. There is also a likeness of Inspector W. A. McCurdy, who delivered the dedicatory address at the Keller school. Of him it is said: "He has a big heart and a level head and both are on duty all the while."

RESINOL RELIEVED ITCHING AT ONCE

And Completely Cured Skin Hurts.

Nov. 1, 1912.—At first little red spots were seen on my arms and body, which I thought were getting larger every day. They itched me so much that I scratched myself until I bled. There were times when I stood up all night and scratched.

I was troubled about three weeks, during which time I used —, which seemed to do me no good whatever. Then finally, I thought of trying Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. As soon as I applied Resinol Ointment I felt much relief. After using it a few times, I noticed the sore spot slowly fading away, and in about a month I was cured.

NEW CHURCH TO BE ERECTED IN WEST SIDE SOON

Moser Property, Main and Williams Streets, Purchased by Central Church of Christ.

West Newark is to have a costly new religious edifice. A real estate deal of more than ordinary importance was consummated for this purpose, Tuesday, when Joseph R. Moser transferred to Prof. O. C. Larson, of Central Church of Christ, lots situated at the southeast corner of Main and Williams streets.

It is said a frame tabernacle will be erected on the rear end of the property newly acquired and that this will be used for Bible classes and Sunday school meetings until such time as the West Newark congregation is organized and the new church completed.

Rev. W. D. Ward and the Central Church of Christ have been maintaining a Bible school in the extreme western part of Newark, in West Main street, for more than five years. As many members of the church reside in the West Side, it has been thought desirable to take initiatory steps toward owning and erecting a house of worship in that part of Newark.

Prof. Larson, when seen Tuesday afternoon, admitted the deal had been closed, but declined for the present to make known the consideration involved in the transaction. He said a church soon will be organized in the West Side and he will then transfer title of the newly acquired property to trustees of the new organization.

He also said that within a few months ground will be broken and workmen will start to build a commodious modern and imposing structure that will be in perfect keeping with the progressive and aesthetic spirit that dominates the West Side.

The main church building will be built of either pressed brick or stone, with a large auditorium, Sunday school annexes and necessary church appurtenances.

WATER FAMINE

(Continued from page one.) off early this morning and held for executives. The many breweries of the city are facing a shutdown or removal of a lack of water. Most of the laundry closed today.

Hotels, restaurants and saloons were in distress today and water, when obtainable, was used with the utmost caution. What water was available was given to the hospitals but these are in a serious condition and patients are suffering for lack of the usual plentiful supply of the fluid.

Employees in tall buildings, as a rule, walked to their offices this morning, as few elevators were running. The street car company is seriously handicapped but is keeping up a limited service by hauling water from the Ohio river to some of its generating stations.

Very few manufacturing plants in the central portion of the city opened today. Those using gas were refused service for the gas company itself is hampered by the water shortage. Others could not obtain water for their boilers.

Service Director Price said that the city is being supplied by the high pressure service which is able to supply only one-third of the normal daily consumption and most of this goes to residence districts.

REFUGEES

(Continued from page one.) actuated your letter, your personal sympathy and that of the people of the United States with the struggle in furtherance of civilization and justice which we are carrying on. I cannot at the less deplore the fact that, with an imperfect understanding of the peculiar character of the Mexican problems, there is likelihood in certain cases, and notwithstanding one's good intention, of placing a wrong construction on some of our acts.

"This is due, in all probability, to the fact that the criminal acts with which this struggle was begun and the cruel measures employed to maintain it are forgotten.

"When Mexico had realized the supreme democratic prerogative of electing her own representatives and had reasons to expect, in the midst of peace and tranquility, the periodical change of public officials only by an expression of popular will, a most corrupt minority of the defeated factions, after attempting to overthrow for all time our political institutions by means of violence alone, have destroyed the lives, the rights and the interests of our fellow citizens; have carried out bloody executions without regard to any laws; have murdered Constitutionalists who fell wounded while fighting for the liberty of the people, have imprisoned the deputies and senators who have defended with their power of speech our democratic institutions; have torn away from their heroic peaceful men and even boys to compel them to take arms against us, or have filled them with terror by devastating entire cities.

"Destructive acts of this character have made it apparent that the cause which I represent has constituted not only a political form of revolution, but also has the character of proceeding calm and severe justice which punishes the culpable and safeguards the Mexican family.

"I have determined, within the spirit of our constitution and without any feeling of passion, but deliberately and with circumspection, to pursue these ends, gradually the exercise of clemency and magnanimity can be attained in satisfaction of an imperative demand of justice and the urgent necessity of securing peace and of assuring the future welfare of the nation.

I have determined to enforce vigorously and in accordance with the proclamation which was duly issued on May 14, 1913, the law of Juarez of Jan. 25, 1862, which defines and punishes delinquencies inimical to the public peace.

"With strict deference to the law provided the Huertista officers were tried and executed in the city of Juarez. Among them were some who had been captured at Torreon by this same General Villa, who, after pardoning them, agreed that they should be enlisted by our forces. Thereafter they endeavored, but unsuccessfully, to create a defection of the men whom I entrusted to their command, finally deserting to re-engage in crime.

"It is true that the established principles observed in international wars extend to prisoners the privil-edge of pardon or immunity from bodily harm, but in civil struggles the ed by Francisco I. Madero, exhausted most civilized nations in all ages all their power of clemency and force, but experienced as the only bloody means even than we have employed more rigorous and generous, but experienced as the results of their tyranny as been compelled to adopt. And with in their country's interior and the loss of prestige outside of its borders.

"I want to insure the operation of the country's institutions and to establish tranquility for all time by means prescribed by the law applicable to offenders against the public peace and safety.

"The occurrences at the city of Juarez were far from being invested with the importance which our enemies, in their intemperate frame of mind, desired to give them.

"In conclusion, it is my desire to assure you that the same humane sentiments which you possess also animate me, and that even though I find it necessary, in deference to the existing national feeling, justice to public confidence and the necessity of restoring peace to my country, to be somewhat strict in the enforcement of the law of Juarez, I have provided at the same time that this law shall be applied only when the limitations are fixed by the most pressing need. It shall be enforced against wilful enemies, with the privilege of pardon and safety extended always to the guiltless and misguided.

"I hope, furthermore, to retain your sympathy as well as that of the people of North America in favor of our cause. You may be sure that I will take into consideration your high ideals to the extent of recommending, always with due respect to the law, greater forbearance toward our enemies."
